GET A MODERN CAR IN 1935

Time Proved Dependability

THERE are no experiments in the new Ford V-8 for 1935. Its modern streamlined beauty is the result of basic engineering advances—(such as moving the passengers forward of the rear axle). The dependable and economical 1935 V-8 engine has a new system of crankcase ventilation—but remains, basically, the same engine that has been proved by a million and a half owners driving over every kind of road.

In the Ford V-8 you get a truly 1935 production—based on Ford's 30 years' experience in building dependable transportation. No matter what you can afford to pay for a car, be sure to see the new Ford V-8 today. You will agree it has everything you want in a car.

gaged in the automobile industry, and has several "firsts" to his credit. He was one of the first to engage in the new trade, starting in the automobile business in 1899. He was later vice president of the Haynes-Apperson Company, at Kokomo, Indiana, builders of the Apperson Jackrabbit, the first car on the market to be driven by a gasoline motor. Incidentally he drove the first car ever seen in the state of Maine.

He was at one time a one-third owner and secretary-treasurer of the Walden W. Shaw Company of Chicago, afterwards the Yellow Taxicab Company, and later was a distributor in Illinois for one of the largest motor companies in the country. He became a member of the Automobile Trade Association, one of the original board of directors, which originated the Blue Book system of valuation of second hand cars, a system which met with immediate success and is in daily use all over the country today.

He was deeply interested in Chamber of Commerce work in Chicago and Kokomo, and since his coming to Torrance has taken an active part in carrying on the work here. His election to the presidency of this organization here is a well merited recognition of his usefulness as a promoter and his wide business experience.

MORE JOBS open to workers IN DISTRICT

Employment for additional electrical workers and laborers from Torrance and other cities to be served by the $220,000,000 Colorado River aqueduct of the Metropolitan Water district is to be provided early in September when work begins on its $5,000,000 power transmission line.

Bids are to be opened August 20 for construction of the power line that will carry 87 per cent of the energy produced at Boulder dam to huge pumps along the aqueduct that will lift the water over mountains between the Los Angeles basin and the Colorado.

Specifications call for the erection, galvanizing, fabrication and straining of conductors for the project—approximately 6,500 tons of steel will be required, and leading Los Angeles steel firms have taken out plans to prepare bids.

On July 23, the district will open bids on three more tunnel jobs in Los Angeles county. One is Monrovia tunnel No. 4, through the San Gabriel mountains in the northern part of Monrovia. The other two are San Rafael tunnels Nos. 1 and 2, in the southern portion of the San Rafael hills between Linda Vista avenue and Glenoaks boulevard in the cities of Los Angeles, Glendale and Pasadena.

Monrovia tunnels Nos. 1, 2 and 3 are under construction, and also the Pasadena tunnel.

NEW LAW will benefit COUNTY

Los Angeles county will benefit particularly from Assembly Bill No. 2433, which Governor Frank F. Merriam signed late last week, according to the county road department.

The bill relates to co-operative highway work, between the state and the federal government, according to George Jones, county road commissioner.

Specific provision is made that in the expenditure of federal emergency funds allocated primarily for the purpose of relieving unemployment, the employees used on any project so financed shall be obtained from the various counties in proportion to the unemployed needs so far as may be practical.

Los Angeles county, by reason of the fact that it had 44.9 per cent of the employable case load of the entire state when a survey was made for the federal government as of last March 31, will benefit by having a large number of its unemployed put to work. The county had 45.4 percent of the relief load of the entire state at that time.

A travelogue, illustrated with moving pictures, given by Dr. Sattler, of Los Angeles, who recently returned from a trip around the world, and music by the Hillbilly band, of the Orpheum circuit, completed the program.

The explosion shattered the bottle, pieces of which struck the boy in the face and shoulder inflicting deep cuts which had to be dressed by a physician.
